

Network Security – Harming Another Network

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Why would it be wrong to take data off of a computer network without permission?
2. What techniques can professionals use to promote ethical behavior for programmers and networking technicians?
3. Computer data theft or digital trespassing is a _____ in most regions of the United States.
4. Learning to write a virus or a script that manipulates the computer is acceptable among computer professionals but this knowledge is _____ among the general population of those who use our networks.
5. Individuals who break into a computer system for personal reasons and do not steal data and sell it for money typically receive _____ sentences when found guilty in court.
6. Individuals who break into a computer system so they can sell the data for money typically receive _____ when found guilty in court.
7. Some countries _____ the information and software access on the Internet so that users do not have advanced capabilities or have knowledge that is unacceptable to their government.
8. The debate in the technology community divides many into two camps. Those who respect the owners of intellectual property against those who believe that all knowledge was derived from the whole and should be made public for the benefit of all mankind and not just a few who exploit it. The first group is more _____.

Network Security – Harming Another Network

9. The debate in the technology community divides many into two camps. Those who respect the owners of intellectual property against those who believe that all knowledge was derived from the whole and should be made public for the benefit of all mankind and not just a few who exploit it. The second group is more _____.
10. Copyrights are a way to protect intellectual property. A copyrighted work is good for ____ years after the author's death.
11. We want to know what are the rules to use an open source software package, so we read the _____ to obtain this knowledge.
12. We use a segment of a movie or a book in our report. We can legally use this work and show the reference to it because of _____ laws.
13. Section 512 of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) protects _____ from prosecution when a person illegally downloads stolen property or posts unlawfully obtained material on a website.
14. In 2007, Apple Inc settled the trademark lawsuit with Apple Corps. From that point, Apple Inc would own the Apple trademark. What unique Internet identifier can be considered to be trademarks?
15. A computer company such as Dell or IBM can create a motherboard using 128 bit components. They want to protect their design. What would they apply for to protect their work?
16. Warren is working on a computer and finds that there is 500,000 credit card files on the C: drive with many names. What should Warren do?
17. When is it okay to place a person's picture on a website?