

Windows 2012 Server Security Review

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Kerberos involves using _____ that pass between the client and the Domain Controller.
2. What is the default maximum lifetime for service ticket when we enable Kerberos on a Windows 2012 server?
3. What is the default maximum lifetime for user ticket when we enable Kerberos on a Windows 2012 server?
4. What is the default maximum lifetime for user ticket renewal when we enable Kerberos on a Windows 2012 server?
5. What is the default maximum tolerance for computer clock synchronization when we enable Kerberos on a Windows 2012 server?
6. What should the enforce user logon restrictions be set to when we enable Kerberos on a Windows 2012 server?
7. Kerberos policies are set at _____ level in Active Directory.
8. What value setting for maximum lifetime for service ticket and maximum lifetime for user ticket will turn off expiration for the ticket?
9. What possible settings could we make for Audit Account Logon Events?
10. What policy determines whether to audit when a user restarts or shuts down the computer or when an event occurs that affects either the system security or the security log?
11. By default, what is the setting for User Rights Assignments?

Windows 2012 Server Security Review

12. What policy would we set so that a user cannot change the company homepage on Internet Explorer?
13. When creating a user account on a client, what should we not set for the local user?
14. On a Windows 2012 server, old user and _____ accounts should always be disabled.
15. What symbol do we put in back of the folder name to make the shared resource invisible?
16. Encryption of data is essential in our industry, especially for HIPAA requirements. Windows Server 2012 provides a built in whole disk encryption feature called _____.
17. What must be installed regularly to help protect Windows 2012 servers?
18. What policy will help us track if a file or folder has been deleted on the Windows 2012 server?
19. Where can we find Bitlocker drive encryption to install it to the Windows 2012 server?
20. You have discovered that people are trying to access your server accounts after adding auditing to your server. What can we do to thwart the attacks?