

Administrating a Server using the Command Line Review

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. What would a network administrator type on the command line to get the list of services running on the Windows server?
2. What would a network administrator type on the command line to get the list of sessions and the amount of memory committed to each on the Windows server?
3. What would a network administrator type on the command line to get the list of processes that used more than 1 minute of processor time?
4. What would a network administrator type on the command line to get the list parameters to be used with tasklist and examples?
5. The network administrator is running service configuration and control at the command line and has access denied. What should the network administrator do to run the sc command successfully?
6. What command will end a process from the command prompt?
7. What would a network administrator type on the command line to immediately stop the notepad program?
8. What would a network administrator type on the command line to immediately stop the calculator program?
9. Write the command line expression to force a restart of the server in 1 minute.

Administrating a Server using the Command Line Review

10. Write the command line expression to record the system information to a text file called "system1".
11. What would a network administrator type on the command line to get the list of counters recorded to a file called counters?
12. What would the network administrator type on the command line to get a list of drivers on a computer?
13. How can the network administrator send the list of drivers to a file called "server_drivers.txt"?
14. What does the network administrator type in the search textbox to launch the registry editor?
15. What would the network administrator type at the command line to start the hibernation mode for the computer?
16. What would the network administrator type on the command line to get a list of drivers on a computer? This is a one word command.
17. What command line entry will allow the network administrator to view the boot.ini file?
18. Write the command line expression to force a shutdown of the server in 1 minute.
19. What ways can the network administrator launch the Command Prompt window?