

Building a Remote Installation Server Checklist

- Install two hard drives on the server
- Install network interface cards
- Load Server 2003 on the computer
- Load network interface drivers
- Setup external and internal NIC
- Connect to the domain controller
- Load the rest of the drivers
- Install Windows Updates
- Load antivirus software
- Install DHCP role, define and activate the scope
- Authorize DHCP Server in Active Directory
- Format second drive for the remote installation images
- Install Windows Deployment Service
- Install the Operating System images using Rlsetup.exe
- Activate the Windows Deployment Services
- Change client computer to boot from the network
- Set BIOS on client computer to boot from NIC and PXE. Set BIOS password
- Load Windows Professional Operating System from RIS server
- Load drivers
- Setup local Administrator password
- Setup network connection
- Connect to domain controller and test client account
- Load Windows Updates
- Load antivirus software
- Load Microsoft Office
- Load Adobe Acrobat Reader and test
- Load Adobe Flash Player and test
- Setup printer and print test page
- Use Riprep.exe to copy hard drive to RIS server
- Install complete image to another client