

Planning for Active Directory Review

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. According to Microsoft, what are the first four steps for planning and Active Directory installation?
2. Give several reasons why an organization would have more than one forest?
3. For domain names that have Internet base top-level domain suffix, what would those suffixes be?
4. Samantha, the network administrator does not want to use the .local suffix for the domain name. What other private domain names suffix is available for her use?
5. According to Microsoft, remark on the detailed steps for planning and Active Directory installation after selecting the forest root domain?
 - a. Design the OU Structure
 - b. Determine Domain Controller Placement
 - c. Determine the Number of Domain Controllers
 - d. Determine Global Catalog Placement
 - e. Determine Operations Master Role Placement
 - f. Create the Site Design
 - g. Create the Site Link Design
 - h. Create the Site Link Bridge Design
 - i. Determine Domain Controller Configuration
6. Organizational Units can be standard or _____ in another OU in the active directory database.
7. Administrative delegation can allow the network administrator to do what?

Planning for Active Directory Review

8. What is the role of the global catalog?
9. What is the purpose of site design planning?
10. What are the three phases of installing Active Directory?
11. Describe the procedure for making any forward lookup zone?
12. What is the IP address we use for making a reverse lookup zone?
13. Name the Domain Controllers for the sales, marketing, production and accounting divisions of bigcompany.com.
14. What is a VHD?
15. What can we do to reduce replication traffic?
16. Name ten predefined groups in Active Directory.
17. How many computers or servers can have the same name in a domain?
18. A RODC is used at what locations?
19. What is a Global Catalog server used for?