Mounting a Flash Drive to Linux Server Review

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. To install the Linux program "pmount", we could type sudo _____ install pmount. What is missing from this installation expression?

2. What can we type to find out the name of our USB device plugged into the Linux server?

3. To mount the USB thumb drive, we type pmount /_____/sdb1. What is the name of the missing directory?

4. We can access our files on the USB device from what directory?

5. We want to make an image folder for our Linux web server. We type sudo mkdir images /___ /___?

6. If a directory called "web folder" is on our Linux server. We change to the directory using what command?

7. To copy all of the html files from the flash drive to the Linux web server, what would we type?

8. To copy all of the JPG files from the flash drive to the Linux web server, what would we type?

9. What can we type to allow us to bypass messages telling us that we do not permissions to create folders or access files?

10. What do we type before unplugging the flash drive?